The purpose of this letter is to confirm our upcoming meeting on Monday, November 4th at 12:30pm at the Company’s offices to discuss the Company’s financial situation.

The Bank has concerns based on, but not limited to, the following issues:

- The Company’s ongoing liquidity, evidenced by ongoing high utilization of the line of credit.
- Monthly reporting related to the calculation of the borrowing base for Renson Transport Ltd.
- Operating account transaction history for the Company.
- The Company’s inability to meet covenants that form part of the Company’s agreement with the Bank including but not limited to;
  - o Annual accountant confirmation of unfunded capex for the Company, which was due within 120 days of fiscal year end for fiscal year end December 31, 2023.
  - o Monthly Borrowing Limit Certificate due within 30 days of month end.
  - o Monthly aged list of accounts receivable and accounts payable due within 30 days of month end.
  - o The apparent breach of the Total Liabilities to Tangible Net Worth of not greater than 3:1, for fiscal year end December 31, 2023.

Based on our concerns noted above, the Company’s risk profile has deteriorated and, as a result, the Bank will require specialized assistance to manage your accounts going forward.

Accordingly, management of your accounts has been re-assigned to Mark Arnold in our Special Loans & Advisory Services group which is located in Toronto.

Re: Demand for Immediate Payment by RBC on Loans to Renson Transport Ltd.

Dear Mr. Mitra,

Further to our call, we are responding to RBC's demand made on November 5, 2024, requiring immediate payment from Renson Transport Ltd. (the "Debtor") and Mr. Surjit Chahal as guarantor. This demand, made "forthwith" without any prior accommodation period or notice, is both abrupt and excessive, placing unreasonable pressure on a longstanding client of the bank who has demonstrated every intention of compliance.

Over the course of its relationship with RBC, Renson Transport Ltd. has operated in good faith, maintaining a cooperative and productive engagement with the Bank. The demand, with no reasonable notice period, severely disrupts our client's operational ability to comply responsibly. We find it necessary to underscore that, while RBC's legal rights allow for payment on demand, such rights are constrained by principles of commercial reasonableness and good faith dealings, particularly with a debtor that has met its obligations, even in adverse market conditions. The failure to consider these principles in this demand stands contrary to reasonable business practice.

To comply with RBC's demand responsibly and in good faith, our client requests an extension of 120 days to arrange the required funds. This period will allow for structured payments, liquidation of non-essential assets, and—if necessary—financing alternatives to meet the demand without destabilizing our client's ongoing business operations. An arbitrary "forthwith" deadline creates unnecessary strain, ultimately jeopardizing the interests of all parties involved.

The requested 120-day period is justified by the following:

1. Substantial Debt and Impact on Operational Continuity: With a demand exceeding $2.7 million, immediate compliance without an accommodation period threatens the Debtor's core operations. A 120-day period allows for an orderly arrangement of resources to meet the Bank's requirements without compromising business stability.
2. Established Legal Precedent on Demand Loans: Courts have consistently held that even demand loans, while legally repayable on demand, warrant a reasonable notice period. Precedents recognize that an “immediate” demand must still account for practical resource mobilization, especially with debtors actively working toward compliance. Our client’s request for 120 days is not excessive but rather aligns with the reasonable notice expected in similar cases.

3. Good Faith and Continuous Cooperation: Renson Transport Ltd. has demonstrated good faith in all dealings with RBC. An extension period of 120 days reflects our client’s established commitment to compliance and ensures the Bank receives payment responsibly and without unnecessary business disruption.
4. Structured Payment Potential: Our client is prepared to establish periodic payment milestones within the 120-day period to demonstrate its commitment to fulfilling the demand. We expect RBC to appreciate that this structured approach serves both parties’ interests and provides assurance of the Debtor’s ongoing compliance.

Given these factors, the abrupt “forthwith” demand appears unbalanced and unnecessarily burdensome, given the options available. Our client is committed to meeting its obligations, but the manner of this demand and lack of reasonable accommodation is not consistent with sound business practice. Based on the foregoing, we kindly request a response from RBC confirming a 120-day extension to ensure practical compliance.

We look forward to RBC’s constructive response, and our client remains open to discussing specific terms for periodic payments within this period.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Yours very truly,

Attention: Arjun Vishwanth

Dear Mr. Vishwanth:

Re: RBC Loans to Renson Transport Ltd.

I have received your emails and letter of November 8, 2024 and thank you for same.

We have never spoken so have no idea why you are suggesting same in the first paragraph of your letter. This is inaccurate.

Thank you for outlining the facts and your clients' position. While we do not agree with same and reserve our rights to respond in the event that the need arises.

You should be aware that there is an unauthorized overdraft in the account of the Debtor, ending in *****58, which your client has failed to address. As at the opening of business on November 13, 2024, the amount of the unauthorized overdraft is $150,694.01. Further, the Visa facility is currently delinquent and has a balance of $103,220.27, as of the opening of business on November 13, 2024, which is in excess of its authorized lending limit in the sum of $100,000.00. Drawings under the Debtor's revolving credit facility is at its credit limit. It certainly appears that the debtor is not meeting its obligations as they come due. Our client has instructed us to take enforcement proceedings and materials were being drafted.

At this stage, any forbearance on the part of the bank will require that the parties enter into a written forbearance agreement in a form acceptable to the bank. We understand you are seeking 120 days to repay our client. Our client would be prepared to consider extending a forbearance agreement for a period of 90 days provided:

- 1) The overdraft must be eliminated forthwith;
- 2) The Visa facility must be brought within authorized credit limits;
- 3) We need to see copies of the account statements of the Debtor with Canada Revenue Agency for both HST and employee source deductions.

In terms of the forbearance agreement, you can expect it will include but not be limited to:

- 1) Appointment of a financial consultant to assess security position of the bank;
- 2) Consents to judgement and receivership if our client is not indefeasibly repaid in full by the end of the forbearance period.

November 13, 2024

- 3) Joint and several guarantees from the guarantor and his spouse in the full amount of the indebtedness which is to be secured by a charge against the principal residence and ILA as required.

Please let us know if your client is prepared to work with the bank in this regard. If not, please confirm you are instructed to accept service of a receivership application and guarantee claims.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Vishwanth:

Re: RBC Loans to Renson Transport Ltd.

We have not heard further from you following your email of November 14, 2024.

The overdraft referred to in our letter of November 13, 2024 has not been eliminated or amounts paid to bring the Visa within authorized limits.

We further note that there are payment defaults in respect of three of the six leasing schedules between our respective clients.

Lease number	Balance	13% HST	Total Owing	Next payment date

A review of the deposits into the operating account of your client reflect a material drop in deposits which suggests that they are no longer making deposits into the accounts of the borrower administered by Royal Bank of Canada. Alternatively, it is unclear why payment of accounts receivable appear to have dropped so sharply. You can likely expect that our client will be taking steps to make demands on the defaulted vehicle leases absent steps to rectify the payment defaults immediately.

The concern of our client is growing. This matter is not being addressed with the degree of priority required. Our client has instructed us to move forward with enforcement. Please confirm you are instructed to accept service of a claim on the guarantees as well as a receivership application. If we do not have your confirmation in this regard, we will move forward and deal with your clients directly.

We urge your client to take steps to repay amounts owed to our client forthwith.

Re: Royal Bank of Canada (“RBC”) loans to Renson Transport Ltd. (the “Debtor”)

We are the lawyers for RBC in connection with its lending arrangements with the Debtor.

The Debtor is indebted to RBC with respect to certain credit facilities (the “Credit Facilities”) made available by RBC to the Debtor, including, without limitation, pursuant to and under the terms of:

- (a) a credit agreement entered into between RBC and the Debtor dated May 2, 2022, and amended by amending agreements dated May 30, 2023, and January 9, 2024 (together, the “Primary Credit Agreement”); and
- (b) the VISA agreement entered into between RBC and the Debtor dated May 6, 2022 (as same may have been amended, replaced, restates or supplemented from time to time, the “Credit Card Agreement”, and together with the Primary Credit Agreement, the “Credit Agreements”).

The non-leasing Credit Facilities are repayable on demand.

The following known amounts are owing to RBC as of November 5, 2024 for principal and interest (plus costs and expenses) pursuant to the non-leasing Credit Facilities under the Credit Agreements:

Operating facility	$2,504,343.75
VISA facility	101,494.89
Overdraft on account ending in 5358	172,536.45
	$2,778,375.09

On behalf of RBC, and without prejudice to making further demand in respect of other amounts outstanding to RBC, including, without limitation, in respect of the leasing Credit Facilities, we hereby make formal demand for payment of $2,778,375.09, together with accruing interest and any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, any legal and other professional fees) incurred by RBC (collectively, the “Indebtedness”). Payment is required to be made immediately. Interest continues to accrue on the Indebtedness at the rates established by the Credit Agreements, and any other agreement, as applicable.

The Indebtedness is secured by, inter alia, the general security agreement dated May 6, 2022, granted by the Debtor in favour of RBC, which grants RBC, amongst other things, a security interest in any and all of the Debtor’s property, assets and undertakings (collectively, the “Security”).

If payment of the Indebtedness is not received immediately, RBC shall take whatever steps it may consider necessary or appropriate to collect and recover the amounts owing to it, including, without limitation, the appointment of an interim receiver, receiver, and/or receiver and manager of the Debtor, in which case RBC will also be seeking all costs associated with so doing.

On behalf of RBC, we hereby enclose a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security delivered pursuant to subsection 244(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the “BIA Notice”), which BIA Notice includes the leasing Credit Facilities as part of the known indebtedness secured by the Security.

RBC hereby reserves its rights to initiate proceedings within the ten (10) day period set out in the BIA Notice, if circumstances warrant such proceedings.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Re: Royal Bank of Canada (“RBC”) loans to Renson Transport Ltd. (the “Debtor”)

As you know, we are the lawyers for RBC in connection with its lending arrangements with the Debtor.

Reference is made to the demand letter issued to the Debtor on November 5, 2024 (the “First Demand”), which has not been honoured. Capitalized terms not defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Demand.

In addition to the Credit Facilities for which the First Demand was issued, the Debtor is also indebted to RBC with respect to certain leasing Credit Facilities (the “Leasing Credit Facilities”) made available by RBC to the Debtor, including, without limitation, pursuant to and under the terms of the Primary Credit Agreement, and the master lease agreement dated August 16, 2022 (together with the leasing schedules thereunder, the “Master Lease Agreement”).

One or more Event of Default (as defined in the Primary Credit Agreement and/or the Master Lease Agreement, as applicable) has occurred in respect of the Leasing Credit Facilities, including monetary defaults thereunder.

The following known amounts (inclusive of HST) are owing to RBC as of December 3, 2024 for principal and interest (plus costs and expenses) in respect of the Leasing Credit Facilities:

Lease no. 201000069330	$81,882.23
Lease no. 201000070659	253,858.12

Lease no. 201000074560	408,136.71
	$2,072,748.96

On behalf of RBC, and without prejudice to making further demand in respect of other amounts outstanding to RBC, and in addition to the First Demand, we hereby make formal demand for further payment of $2,072,748.96, together with accruing interest and any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, any legal and other professional fees) incurred by RBC (collectively, the "Leasing Indebtedness"). Payment is required to be made immediately. Interest continues to accrue on the Leasing Indebtedness at the rates established by the Credit Agreements, the Master Lease Agreement and any other agreement, as applicable.

The First Demand enclosed a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security delivered pursuant to subsection 244(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the "BIA Notice"), which BIA Notice included the Leasing Credit Facilities as part of the known indebtedness secured by the Security. Please note that the 10-day statutory waiting period in respect of the BIA Notice has seasoned, such that RBC is in a position to take enforcement steps in respect of the Security.

If payment of the Indebtedness is not received immediately, RBC shall take whatever steps it may consider necessary or appropriate to collect and recover the amounts owing to it, including, without limitation, the appointment of an interim receiver, receiver, and/or receiver and manager of the Debtor and/or the leased equipment, in which case RBC will also be seeking all costs associated with so doing.

In addition to the Credit Facilities for which the First Demand was issued, the Debtor is also indebted to RBC with respect to certain leasing Credit Facilities (the “Leasing Credit Facilities”) made available by RBC to the Debtor, including, without limitation, pursuant to and under the terms of the Primary Credit Agreement, and the master lease agreement dated August 16, 2022 (together with the leasing schedules thereunder, the “Master Lease Agreement”).

One or more Event of Default (as defined in the Primary Credit Agreement and/or the Master Lease Agreement, as applicable) has occurred in respect of the Leasing Credit Facilities, including monetary defaults thereunder.

You, Surjit Chahal (the “Guarantor”), personally guaranteed the Debtor’s obligations to RBC, including, without limitation, the Leasing Credit Facilities, pursuant to the written guarantee and postponement of claim granted to RBC in the limited principal amount of $4,600,000.00 dated May 31, 2023 (the “Guarantee”).

The following known amounts (inclusive of HST) are owing to RBC as of December 3, 2024 for principal and interest (plus costs and expenses) in respect of the Leasing Credit Facilities:

Lease no. 201000069330	$81,882.23
Lease no. 201000070659	253,858.12
Lease no. 201000071268	86,946.24
Lease no. 201000072256	489,159.30
Lease no. 201000074511	752,766.36
Lease no. 201000074560	408,136.71
	$2,072,748.96

On behalf of RBC, and without prejudice to making further demand in respect of other amounts outstanding to RBC, and in addition to the First Demand, we hereby make formal demand on you, the Guarantor, for further payment of $1,821,624.91, together with accruing interest and any and all costs and expenses (including, without limitation, any legal and other professional fees) incurred by RBC (collectively, the “Additional Guaranteed Indebtedness”). Payment is required to be made immediately. Interest continues to accrue on the Additional Guaranteed Indebtedness at the rates established by the Credit Agreements, the Master Lease Agreement, the Guarantee and any other agreement, as applicable.

If payment of the Additional Guaranteed Indebtedness is not received immediately, RBC shall take whatever steps it may consider necessary or appropriate to collect and recover the amounts owing to it, including, without limitation, the commencement of civil legal proceedings against you, the Guarantor, in which case RBC will also be seeking all costs associated with so doing.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Yours truly,

AIRD & BERLIS LLP
